

BMC council to meet last time for thanksgiving

No discussion on developmental work, fund utilisation to be taken up

OUR STAFF REPORTER
BHOPAL

The last council meet of Bhopal Municipal Corporation (BMC), scheduled any day before February 18, will merely be a thanksgiving meet. The corporators would be honored, greetings extended but no discussion, debate on any pending work or development projects would be taken up at the meeting, the date of which is still to be announced.

BMC chairman Surjeet Singh Chouhan confirmed they were planning to call a meeting at Minto hall. The chairman though ruled out any discussion taking place in the meeting saying that only wishes will be extended to the outgoing members. The tenure of the BMC is scheduled to end on February 18.

The corporators, however, are not pleased as they wanted convening of council meet much earlier as they wanted to take up pending development work and public issues at the meet. The corporators - both BJP and Congress - say that the meeting should have been called a month before but the officials were too busy in sanitation drive and council meet was not their priority. The corporators wanted a debate on the use of funds and other development work in their areas as they say claim that many files of development projects were stuck in BMC office. They also resented delay in release of the corporators' 25 % fund, the amount was released last month. The corporators said that the funds should have been released earlier so that they could have monitored it but since the amount was released at eleventh hour there would now not be position to ensure its optimum use. They said that since the tenure was about to end, the officials were not taking up their calls or listening to their issues.

Nazma Ansari, a Congress corporator said she had forwarded several files related to road and sewage in her ward but she would not be able to even track the status of development. "The officials are not cooperating and I wanted to raise the issue in the council meet," said the corporator.

BJP corporator Sanjeev Gupta said the issue of Arch Bridge should have been sorted out in the council meet, besides there are other issues as well which need to be discussed in the council.

Guest scholar suicide

Wife threatens suicide

No option than to commit suicide with kids says wife of guest scholar who hanged self on Monday

OUR STAFF REPORTER
BHOPAL

Wife of guest scholar (sports officer) Sanjay Kumar who committed suicide by hanging on Monday has said that higher education minister should provide relief to her family else she will be left with no option than to commit suicide.

"Minister (higher education) should come forward and decide to help my family else I will be left with no option than to commit suicide along with family members," said Lalsa Devi, wife of Sanjay Kumar.

Lalsa said that Sanjay used to say quite often that he will lose job any day. He was quite under depression as he didn't get honorarium for past six months.

"I have three children and one of them has to appear in

Are you waiting for more deaths Mr CM, asks LoP

Leader of Opposition Gopal Bhargava targeted CM Kamal Nath asking if that (suicide) was one of the achievements his government was claiming. Thousands of guest scholars are under same stress as Sanjay who could not bear the brunt and committed suicide, said LoP. Are you waiting for more deaths Mr CM? Does Congress not care for their lives, asked Bhargava. His friends said that Sanjay was quite active in the protest.

class 10 board exams but we don't have fees. We haven't paid rent of our house. Future of my children is in dark," said the woman sobbing.

Thousands of guest scholars have been rendered jobless after appointment of regular staff through PSC. Adding to their woes, they haven't been paid honorarium for past six to eight months.

Differences have also appeared between administration and the family members. While police authorities say no suicide letter was recovered, family members and close friends insist that police had recovered one but is not revealing it.

Honey trap case

Police failed to establish human trafficking angle: Defence counsel

BHOPAL: Seeking dismissal of human trafficking charge in the infamous honey trap case, the defense counsel argued before district and sessions court that neither the girl was minor nor police could establish any human trafficking angle in the case.

Acting on the complaint of Hiralal Yadav, father of Monika Yadav, one of the accused in Honey trap case, the police have registered an FIR under section 370, 370 (A) and 120 (B) of IPC - which pertains to human trafficking. The complainant has alleged that her daughter and many others were lured into the gang by the prime accused Aarti Dayal.

Yadav in his complaint said that a man had befriended Monica over phone, and later introduced her to Aarti Dayal, Shweta Jain and others through social media. His daughter was a meritorious student and had come to Bhopal to appear for the army recruitment test, but the gang trapped her in its net, said yadav in police complaint.

Advocate Vivek Chaudhary, counsel of Arti Dayal, said, "Police failed to establish charge of human trafficking against anyone in honey trap case. So I raised the issues before court that allegation of human trafficking is false and baseless. Police too failed to link how complainant and accused came to know each other."

Earlier, Rajesh Burman, who had appeared on behalf of Sweta Vijay Jain and Abhishek, told court that "it was wrong to consider Monika a minor as she was pursuing graduation."

The allegations of Monika's father that she was minor and lured into the illegal business on pretext of better job, does not stand, argued the Burman before the court.

Azad warns Nath of agitation if govt fails to withdraw cases against Dalits

Boycott NPR but offer tea to officers coming to collect details, Bhim Army chief tells residents

OUR STAFF REPORTER

Bhim Army chief Chandrashekar Azad warned chief minister Kamal Nath of aggressive agitation if cases registered against Dalits were not withdrawn speedily.

"We will teach Congress government a good lesson if it fails to withdraw all cases registered against Dalits during April 2, 2018 agitation," said Azad addressing a rally to protest against CAA and NRC at Iqbal Maidan here on Tuesday.

The MP government was portraying itself as Dalit friendly, but the speed at which they are withdrawing cases against dalits speaks something else, he added.

"CM should pay attention, if timely action is not taken we will come back again in bigger strength. You should now do one thing that is to expand the size of the Bhopal jail," Azad said in warning tone.

The Bhim Army chief also demanded cases against upper caste people who allegedly pelted stones on a procession taken out on the occasion of Ravidas Jayanti in Tikamgarh.

Whoever try to suppress the Dalits, they will be turned into zero, said the outfit chief. Playing Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah, the Bhim Army chief said that BJP government was trying to divide the society and rule the nation. He alleged that BJP was trying to sabotage the voting rights of the Muslims and Dalits.

Every citizen should boycott the NPR, but they should offer tea to officers coming to collect details, said Azad. He also termed those chief ministers as traitors who were permitting to conduct National Population Register in their state.

No cash payment for energy bills from Apr 1

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Madhya Pradesh Western Region Power Distribution Company Ltd (west discom) is not going to accept payments for bills in cash from April 1. West discom managing director Vikas Narwal made this announcement at a review meeting held on Tuesday. He directed officials to accept cash payment for bills till March 31.

"From April 1, consumers will be able to pay bills through net banking, credit card, debit card, cheques, e-wallet like Paytm, Google Pay, Airtel Money, Pay-Phone or other cashless options," he said. Narwal said

West discom to accept payments from cards, e-wallets, net-banking no consumer will get hand receipt from April 1.

"As cashless payments provide consumers a rebate, they will embrace this new system very fast," he added. Besides, instructions were given for completing line and other maintenance works before school and college examinations start.

Narwal directed his subordinates to make sure that maintenance works are over in February. "From March, exam season will begin. Besides, temperature will rise making it dif-icult to undertake maintenance work. So, the work should be done before March," he said.

Narwal stated that the electricity demand in Indore city is likely increase by 60 percent in summer. "For uninterrupted supply, it is necessary to undertake maintenance work before summer arrives," he added.

Narwal directed city superintendent engineer Ashok Sharma to deploy staff to increase the balance of agricultural connections in the city, increase billing efficiency, constantly oversee the input and billing of transformers.

Instructions were also given to open counters for accepting electricity bills in labourers' locality in Palda. Narwal asked five executive engineers of city, Yogesh Athanre, Rajesh Arora, RK Tiwari, Manendra Garg, RP Singh to receive continuous information of all their zones and timely resolution of consumer complaints.

Narwal also said that there is an outstanding of Rs 4 crore to 5 crore for temporary connections on colonisers of Indore city and other places. "Find them, and recover the outstanding amount," he directed officials.
